

LATEST NEWS OF THE RAILROADS

Chesapeake and Ohio Again After More Cars—Other Matters of interest.

The constantly increasing business of the Chesapeake and Ohio has made the matter of equipment a question of paramount importance with that road. The news that the "Yellow Line" wants more cars and is continually placing contracts is a frequent occurrence.

The latest demand of the Chesapeake and Ohio now is for flat cars. The officials of that road are at present at work on the specifications of a contract for two hundred forty-ton flat cars, and the contract, it is expected, will soon be let, as will also the contract for more engines.

TROOPS MOVING.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway will handle two companies of the Eleventh United States Infantry from Newport News to Washington. The party will be composed of twenty officers and one hundred and sixty men. They will occupy a special train of two baggage cars, five coaches and one Pullman.

The men will arrive on the transport Rawlins from Porto Rico to-day. To-day a special of fourteen cars will leave St. Louis for Newport News, via Big Four and C. & O. routes, with 200 men, United States Infantry. The troops will be taken to Porto Rico on the transport Rawlins. The train will pass through Richmond to-morrow night.

ALBANY NOTES.
A conference of Seaboard officials were held in the offices of President Williams yesterday. The operation of the system was discussed.

HEARD ON CAPITOL HILL.

Governor Tyler and Secretary Lawless Away.

Governor Tyler has gone to Chicago to look after some private business. He left by way of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad at noon yesterday.

He was undecided when he left whether he will return here in time to go to Washington with the military to attend the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the seat of government or whether he will join the party in the capital city on December 10th.

Hon. A. F. Withrow, many times a member of the House of Delegates from Allegheny, Bath and Highland, is in the city and called at the Library yesterday. Mr. Withrow is being urged to stand for the Constitutional Convention from his district, but says it does not suit him to run, and he has not yet made up his mind on the subject.

The case of Longley vs. the Commonwealth is engaging the attention of the Supreme Court yesterday. Messrs. Daniel Trigg and Honaker & Hutton, of Abingdon, represent the plaintiff in error, and the Attorney-General appears for the Commonwealth.

Longley was convicted of murder in the second degree in the County Court of Washington and sentenced to thirteen years in the penitentiary. He is now in the jail at Abingdon upon the writ of error, granted by the Supreme Court, is seeking to secure a new trial.

The following notices public have been appointed by the Governor: C. Cotesworth Finckley, Richmond City; H. S. Horlick, Princess Anne; R. M. Preston, Loudoun; W. M. Murrell, Lynchburg; T. Howard Embert, Baltimore, has been appointed a commissioner of deeds for Virginia, to the State of Maryland.

The following were the proceedings yesterday in the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia:
Conley, receiver, vs. Bargamin: Argued by R. Carter Scott for appellees, and J. W. Gordon for appellant and submitted.

Longley vs. Commonwealth. Argued by Judge Hutton for appellant, and Attorney-General for Commonwealth and continued until to-day.
Stewart vs. Reed: Glenn vs. Andrews; Richmond Railway and Electric Company vs. City of Richmond, dismissed.

The next case to be called is Shickell vs. Berryville Land and Improvement Company. No. 20 on argument docket.
After opinions are delivered on Thursday.

"It Seems as Though my Back Would Break."

Is it not true? Women suffer, feel the very life crushed out of them, grow old before their time. Each morning wake up determined to do so much before the day ends, and yet—

Before the morning is very old the dreadful BACKACHE attacks them, the brave spirit sinks back in affliction; no matter how hard they struggle, the "clutch" is upon them and they fall upon the couch crying:

"Why should I suffer so? What can I do?"

The answer is ready, your cry has been heard, and a woman is able to restore you to health and happiness.

Backache is only a symptom of more fatal trouble—heed its warning in time.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will stop your torture and restore your courage. Your pains come from unnatural menstruation or some derangement of the womb. Let those who are suffering read Mrs. Morton's letter and be guided by her experience.

AN OPEN LETTER TO WOMEN.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been so delighted with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would write and thank you. My system was entirely run down. I suffered with terrible backache in the small of my back and could hardly stand upright; was more tired in the morning than on retiring at night. I had no appetite. Since taking your Compound I have gained fifteen pounds, and am gaining every week. My appetite has improved, have no backache, and I look better than I ever looked before."

"I shall recommend it to all my friends, as it certainly is a wonderful medicine."—Mrs. E. F. MORTON, 226 York Street, Cincinnati, O.

GREAT DISPENSER IN FINE FETTER

Went Through a Long Docket Like a Streak of Lightning.

DRINKS AND AN OYSTER STEW

Justice John Gives Orders to Bring in All Suspicious and Idle Fellows—Case of Theft Disposed Of.

The wheel of justice worked like a fly-wheel with a keg of dynamite on it yesterday, and the Great Dispenser went through the long Monday docket with the pleasure a small boy finds in swimming in the river against parents' wishes.

R. M. Kyle took a few drinks and then imagined that he needed an oyster stew. So he went into Taylor Walker's saloon and ordered a large one. When he had consumed half two oysters he moved a quick break for the door, and was running up the street without having even said "thank you" for the stew.

He was overhauled, however, and carried to the lock-up, and when he faced the Great Dispenser, he humbly acknowledged that he was crinkly and didn't know what he did. The price of $2.50 was put down against him and he fell back.

Joe Washington and James Johnston, colored crap shooters, were caught in the act.

"Did they catch you?"

"Dat's what dey said."

"Two and a half."

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER.
John Graham (colored) was arrested by Detectives Wren and Gibson as a suspicious character. They saw him in a special charge against him, but he had no visible means of support and was seen hanging around a disreputable part of the city.

"That's right," said the Great Dispenser, "get them all, and break up this thieving in Richmond, if I have to put every man, woman and child in jail and get guards from Manchester. Four months!"

Winlow (colored) was sent to the grand jury for entering the hallway at W. H. Bagley's residence Saturday night and carrying off a bicycle. Detective Tomlinson recovered the wheel and arrested W. M. Winlow.

Queen Victoria (colored) was given fifteen days in jail for acknowledging that she pawned a suit of furniture that she had secured on the installment plan.

A. R. Rogers (colored) was arrested for prowling about the city at an unseemly hour. He was let off on a fine for being drunk, because a most reputable citizen vouched for him.

GOT NINETY DAYS.
Alike in crime, but many days in jail for stealing a pair of eye-glasses, Clare Gaud acknowledged that he took a lamp belonging to W. H. Glass and tried to sell it, and he was sent down for thirty days.

Carl Hewitt (colored) was the cause of his own downfall. He had fallen several times, and when he acknowledged that he entered a hallway and carried off a hat, an umbrella and an overcoat he was given six months.

Jim White (colored) was given six months for stealing a silk muffler from a department store, on Saturday night. He is a well-known thief and a desperate character, and attempted to break away from the police yesterday morning when he was being brought to the pen. He was captured after a run of about two blocks, by Officer Hutton Amos.

Gen. Clark (colored) was given six months for stealing an overcoat, and twelve months as a suspicious character.

COL. BRADY'S FUNERAL.

A Large Number of Richmond People Attended.
(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

PETERSBURG, Va., December 3.—Col. James L. Brady's funeral took place from St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Petersburg Sunday at 1:30 P. M. A very large crowd was in attendance.

Rev. Father O'Farrell conducted the services, and delivered a beautiful eulogy on the life and character of Colonel Brady. The floral offerings were very numerous and exceedingly handsome. One of the prettiest was a cross of rare flowers, sent by the officials in the Richmond Internal Revenue office.

Colonel Brady's body was buried in a beautiful spot in the Catholic cemetery, in Petersburg.

About fifty people from Richmond attended the funeral. The Seaboard Air Line tendered them a complimentary trip. They left here at 3:05 A. M. and reached the city on their return about 6 P. M. Among those who went were Judge L. L. Lewis, Mr. Knight, N. J. Smith, Colonel A. W. Archer, L. O. Moore, John L. Grubbs, A. C. Peay, John H. Campbell, J. W. Southard, Jr., Allan Talbott, Jr., Milo M. Williams, Frank C. Murphy, Col. Jno. Murphy, John M. Ryall, Mrs. L. R. Deane, Mr. Frank P. Burke, F. J. Reilly and Edward Thompson.

Mr. John S. Belth went to the station, intending to go to Petersburg, but he was so much indisposed he took the advice of friends and returned home.

Judge Waddell came up from Norfolk.

Mother's Love

Is boundless. Yet it is utterly helpless to give strength to the child born with a low vitality. The time to give strength to the child is before birth and to impart this gift the mother herself must be strong. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives strength to mothers. It preserves them in robust health in the months before baby comes. It practically does away with the pains of motherhood, and enables the mother to endow her child with a healthy body and a happy disposition. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is absolutely free from opium and cocaine.

"I consider Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the best medicine made," writes Mrs. Mary Murdock of Taylor St., Topeka, Kansas. "I know it has no equal. I am the mother of ten children and only one living—the tenth one. She is a beauty. Of my other babies, some were born at right time, but dead, others were premature births and lived to be one year old but was always feeble. I tried different doctors but none of them could tell me my trouble was. I was weary and nervous but they found nothing wrong. I did not know what to do, so I thought this time I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took it the entire nine months and now have a fine baby girl, and I can not praise your medicine enough for the good it has done."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure heartburn.

French Flannels and Flannelettes.

Numerous New Styles.

There is hardly a texture of this or last season that can approach the popularity of these closely related products of the loom. The first, superb in rich colors, and pure wool demands a price above that which some persons care to pay for a fabric for general usage—for such is the comfort of the flannelette; as rich in colors, in perfect patterns, identical in appearance to the best imported flannels; it is 27 inches wide, per yard, 12 1/2, 15 and 16 3/4 cts. And the real flannels range like this:

French Flannel, new patterns, dark or light, 27 inches wide, per yard.....	75c
French Flannels, solid shades, new colorings, per yard, 50c, and.....	60c
French Flannels, solid silk striped.....	65c
French Serges, silk embroidered figures and dots, per yard.....	$1.00
Bedford Cords, silk embroidered, newest shades, per yard.....	$1.25

Black Taffeta Silks.

Two extraordinary values, in perfect lustrous, rustling Taffeta, one lot 27 inches wide, is all 60c silk, a good 50c quality, at per yard..... One lot, 19 inches wide, every yard warranted 85c, per yard.....

FOURQUEAN, TEMPLE & CO.

Among the prominent Republicans in attendance were Park Agnew, of Alexandria; S. Brown Allen, of Augusta; and George E. Bowden, of Norfolk.

General Burns, of New York, an old friend and former law partner of Colonel Brady, was a distinguished guest and upon their arrival at Petersburg the Richmond people marched in a body to Colonel Brady's late residence and viewed his remains.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Gossip About the Coming Constitutional Convention.

Some Virginia Democrats do not know whether they want to go to the Constitutional Convention or not. A prominent gentleman expressed himself while in the city many days ago. He said he was being appealed to to come to the convention from his section, but that there were grave doubts in his mind whether an instrument could be framed which would meet the approval of the people at the polls, so intricate were the questions to be dealt with, and that no man cared to go into any body which was likely to develop into a political cemetery. Among the thinking element of the party there is much apprehension about the fight for constitutional reform in Virginia, and many of the strongest party men say the situation is full of doubt and chaos. Those who are taking an unselfish interest in the work of the proposed convention seem to be the least anxious to run for delegates and express serious doubt as to the result of the struggle.

The friends of Mr. Frank T. Glasgow will urge him to allow his name to be used for delegate to the Constitutional Convention. He is one of the leading business men of the city, and has had considerable experience in public affairs.

Property Transfers.

The following property transfers were recorded yesterday:

Frederic B. Hobson to Allen G. Collins, 60 feet on east side Twenty-second Street, 100 feet south of Marshall Street, subject to deed of trust for $500.

E. J. and Clarence Peyton to H. R. Polard, Jr., and John Bagby, 30 feet on north side Taylor Street, between Reservoir and Randolph Streets, and 32 feet on north side "Haffin" Street, between Reservoir and Randolph Streets, $2,500.

Stella L. and Thomas Taylor to John E. Hobson, 100 feet on south side Marshall Street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third Streets, $50.

L. O. Wendenburg, special commissioner, to William Rueger, 20 feet on south side Bank Street, 55 feet east of Ninth Street, $4,300.

Bankruptcy Petition.

A petition in bankruptcy was yesterday filed in the Clerk's office of the United States District Court by I. D. Briggs through his counsel, Minnettes Polkes. Mr. Briggs has been in the bakery business a number of years, and all of these are "old debts." His liabilities are $14,347.53, assets nothing.

The postoffice receipts for last month were $22,064.52.
